Branson Christmas

Branson, MO

November 4-5, 2026

Join us for our annual Branson Christmas overnight that is sure to get you in the holiday spirit, where you will experience joy, nostalgia, reverence, and fun of the season. This two-day adventure includes four shows, lots of good food, and hotel accommodation at the Savannah House Hotel, with a hot breakfast and a late-night freshly homemade dessert.

Our first day begins with lunch at Taste of Heroes – a famous restaurant, then some free time before we head over to the Dutton’s Family show, which offers a wealth of content focused on family, multi-generational talent, and high energy holiday entertainment as a blend of heartfelt holiday cheer musical. Then head over to check into our hotel for a little down time before a delicious meal at the Hughes Brothers Theatre before seeing their amazing award-winning show. Breakfast the next morning is at the hotel and then start off the day with Clay Cooper Country Express, which will blow you away with great music, dancing, and comedy by Matt Gumm. Then we’ll enjoy lunch at McFarlain’s Restaurant. We will close out our trip with The Petersens, a top-rated holiday bluegrass show perfect for the holiday season. Cost includes transportation, hotel, four shows, three meals, driver tip, water, and snack.
